Twenty-Sixth Sunday In Ordinary Time

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

In the gospel, Jesus asks his disciples to be tolerant. If tolerance were not good, why would Jesus require such from his disciples? As narrated, it started when after the disciples 'saw someone driving out demons' in the name of Jesus, they prevented him from performing exorcism because he did not belong to the followers of Jesus.

We could only surmise what was in the minds of the disciples. Were they jealous because the man could also cast out demons though he was not one of them? Were they angry because they had assumed that the power to exorcise demons was a privilege given only to the followers of Jesus and not to any other person? The disciples were confused. Suddenly, what they have thought to be their exclusive right was no longer theirs alone. Jesus had his reasons: 'Do not prevent him,' he said, 'there is no one who performs a mighty deed in my name who can at the same time speak ill of me. For whoever is not against us is for us.' With these words, Jesus has taught his disciples about tolerance more as an exercise of Christian humility and charity.

Being tolerant of each other and caring for each other is what makes us human. By teaching tolerance, we allow individuality and diversity while promoting peace and a civil society. Our success in the struggle against intolerance depends on the effort we make to educate ourselves and our children.

God bless you,

Fr. Theemas

Memorial of The Holy Guardian Angels October 2nd

The mission of the Guardian Angels is, as Saint Paul tells us, to serve the future heirs of salvation. Every kingdom, country, diocese, church and religious order has its protecting Guardian Angel. So has every person. Our Guardian Angel is given us at the moment of our birth, stays with us all through life, comforts us in Purgatory, and escorts us, if we are saved, into Heaven. The greatest joy any of us can give our Guardian Angel is to receive Holy Communion and make our breast a tabernacle of the Eternal God before Whom this angel can adore. Many of the saints saw their Guardian Angels. Saint Rose of Lima did, and so did Saint Gemma Galgani. And so did Saint Frances of Rome, Saint Margaret of Cortona and Saint Bridget of Sweden. A great Pope, Saint Gregory the Great, was tenderly devoted to his Guardian Angel. Saint Catherine of Siena saw her Guardian Angel. Saint Francis de Sales had, as one of his special devotions, reverence for the Holy Angels who have charge of the care of the tabernacle in every Catholic Church. Many of us still remember the prayer we learned as children, "Angel of God, my Guardian dear, to whom God's love commits me here, ever this day (or night) be at my side, to light and guard, to rule and guide. Amen."

BETHLEHEM HANDICRAFTS NEXT WEEKEND

From Bethlehem, the birthplace of our Lord Jesus Christ, comes Bethlehem Handicrafts. The Christian community there takes great pride in creating unique olive wood handicrafts from the Holy Land. Bethlehem Handicrafts financially supports many Christian families in our Savior's land by their sales, improving the economic and social conditions of these families. These items will be displayed in the main vestibule of our church next weekend. Won't you please be a part of changing lives with your purchase?
